He stands out in the crowd
Everyone looks at their smartphone
Only this man looks ahead
He doesn't have to go to an office

He – he – he – he is the wild man

He talks to the demons of the past
He dives into magic – he roams the urban jungle

He just gets up in the morning, because the sun wakes him up
He's electrified today, he enjoys every single minute

Because he's lots of ideas that are constantly mutating and expanding
He is loved and hated – he doesn't fit – he doesn't fit

He roams the urban jungle – he is the wild man
He dives into magic – he roams the urban jungle
